A rider licence is valid until the date of ESNZ membership expiry. If your membership will expire before your overseas competition you may need to renew your ESNZ membership before you apply for a riders license.

A rider licence is approved by the discipline Sport Manager and the General Manager of ESNZ. Please be aware that this can take a couple of days to process.

Please ensure that you provide a copy of your rider license to the National Federation of the country(ies) that you are competing in.
