BY –LAWS
For the administration of
ENDURANCE NEW ZEALAND & COMPETITIVE TRAIL RIDING

1. INTRODUCTION

Endurance New Zealand & Competitive Trail Riding (“EnNZ”) a discipline recognized by the Annual General Assembly (“AGA”) of the Equestrian Sports New Zealand (“ESNZ”) shall be governed by a Board appointed by the members of EnNZ (“Board”).

The Board is the duly appointed delegate of ESNZ for all purposes connected with governance and management of EnNZ. The Board has ESNZ authority to make by-laws for administration and governance of EnNZ.

These By-Laws are to be read in conjunction with the ESNZ Constitution Rules and By-Laws. If there is any inconsistency between these By-Laws and the Constitutional Rules, Regulations and By-Laws of the ESNZ, the Constitutional Rules, Regulations and By-Laws of the ESNZ will prevail.

2. ADMINISTRATION

The administrative functions of EnNZ shall be supervised by the Board.

3. PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES

The purpose of EnNZ is to operate as the administrative and regulatory agency of endurance to maintain fair and equal competition and encourage the observance of the principles and spirit of equestrian sports by both horse and rider.

The mission of EnNZ is to organise and promote the growth of the Discipline in New Zealand.

Its objects are:

- To provide opportunities and access for as many New Zealanders as possible who wish to participate in endurance and competitive trail riding ("CTR") at all levels of competition from recreational to elite.
- To protect the welfare of horses in sport through the pursuit of excellence in riding, instruction, judging, course designing, medication control, veterinarian and any other matters pertaining to horsemanship.
- To encourage, organise and promote the entry of equestrian teams and individuals (where applicable) in international events.

Such details may be required to be kept and maintained in an electronic data retrieval system and be capable of being emailed. The secretary of EnNZ shall be responsible for providing the secretary of ESNZ with such details.
- (d) Each affiliated club shall be responsible for obtaining the consent of its members in writing under the Privacy Act to the collection and dissemination of personal information for the efficient administration of New Zealand Endurance and ESNZ.

8. VOTING & PROXIES

8.1 Each member entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting may appoint a proxy to attend and vote on that member's behalf on the following terms:

- (a) The appointment of a proxy must be in writing signed by the appointor and be in a form where the intention to appoint the proxy is clear.
- (b) The appointment of the proxy may entitle the proxy to vote as the proxy sees fit or may direct the proxy to vote as directed in terms of the appointment.
- (c) The proxy may be general or specific in its terms and shall be read according to its clear meaning.
- (d) The document appointing the proxy must be received by the Returning Officer four days prior to the date of the meeting or handed in on the day of the meeting by a time to be decided by the Chair of EnNZ at which the proxy intends to attend and vote and if such proxy appointment is not so presented then the proxy shall be ineffective for that meeting..
- (e) The proxy so appointed must be an ordinary member of EnNZ at the time of appointment of the proxy.
- (f) The Proxy shall have no more than Five (5) proxy votes

9. EXECUTIVE BOARD

9.1 Composition of Board.

The Board shall comprise Board members as follows:

- (a) A maximum of Seven (7) elected financial members of EnNZ elected under by-law 10; and
- (b) Two (2) members of EnNZ appointed under bylaw 12.

- (c) The seven elected members must include a minimum of 2 members resident in the South Island
- (d) The seven elected members must include a minimum of 2 members resident in the North Island

9.2 Remuneration of Board Members

If appropriate the Board members may be paid for their time and responsibility in such sum or sums as the AGM shall in each year decide for the ensuing year.

The Board members may also be reimbursed for any travel or like expense incurred as a direct consequence of performing the functions of a Board member.

9.3 Election of Chairperson of the Board

The Board shall elect from their number a Chairperson and a Deputy Chairperson.

The Chairperson shall be the Chairperson of EnNZ and entitled to speak and act as such having regard to what is in the best interests of the members.

The Board may appoint from its members persons to perform such roles as the Board deems appropriate including but not limited to Financial Controller and Secretary.

9.4 Conduct of Meeting

At all meetings of the Board each Board member shall have one vote.

The voting at all meetings of the Board shall be by voice or on a show of hands unless a motion to take a ballot shall be carried.

No debate shall be permitted on a motion to take a ballot.

9.5 Chairperson's Voting Rights

The Chairperson of the Board shall have a casting vote as well as a deliberative vote.

9.6 Calling of Meetings

A meeting of the Board may be summoned by the Chairperson or the President of ESNZ at any time and must be summoned by him/her on receipt of a written requisition signed by two Board Members specifying the agenda of the meeting.

9.7 Quorum for Meeting

At any meeting of the Board the attendance of a minimum of (4) four members shall be required to form a quorum. A majority is still required for any items/issues that need to be voted on. If the quorum of four is evenly split 2-2 this is not a majority decision and the decision must be put forward to the whole Board at a later date.

10. ELECTION OF BOARD MEMBERS

10.1 Nomination of Candidates.

Subject at all times to compliance with the requirements of by-laws 9.1(c) and (d) the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) Nominations shall be made in writing on the form prescribed by the Board and must be in the hands of the Secretary on or before the 31 May in each year.
- (b) In the event the number of nominations equals the required number of vacancies to be filled the Chairman at the AGM shall declare those members so nominated to be elected.
- (c) If the number of nominations is less than the number of vacancies, then the Chairman shall declare those members so nominated to be elected and the chairman of the annual general meeting shall call for nominations, to be seconded by another member to fill any vacancies at the annual general meeting and elected candidates to fill those vacancies shall be determined in accordance with by-law 10.4.
- (d) In the event that the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies a postal ballot of financial members shall be conducted. Voting papers shall be forwarded to financial members during the first week of June and must be returned to the Returning Officer prior to the date of the meeting or handed in on the day of the meeting by a time to be decided by the Chair of EnNZ. The elected candidates shall be determined in accordance with by-law 10.4.
- (e) Any member may nominate any other member.

10.2 Notification to Members

- (a) Voting papers shall be forwarded to financial members during the first week of June, either by post, fax or electronically, on which financial members may record their postal, fax or electronic votes for the number of vacancies to be filled on the Board. Candidates' names shall be shown in alphabetical order without any indication as to whether they are presently office bearers or members of the Board.

10.3 Term of Office

- (a) Subject to any earlier termination or disqualification a Board member is elected to that position until retirement until by-law 11.3.
- (b) If a Board member's position shall become vacant nothing shall prevent such a Board member from re-election for a further term.
- (c) Any member may nominate any other member/s for re-election to the Board.

10.4 Voting

- (a) A Returning Officer and two scrutineers shall be appointed by the Chairperson to count the votes.
- (b) The Returning Officer is to ensure that the composition of the Board in terms of by-law 9.1 is maintained and accordingly is empowered as follows:
 - (i) To declare the highest polling candidate(s) is/are elected to the vacancy(ies).
 - (ii) If there is a shortfall in the Island representation (by-laws 9.1(c) and (d)), to replace the lowest polling successful candidate(s) with the highest polling candidate(s) from the Island with a shortfall of candidate(s) representation to ensure by-laws 9.1(c) and (d) are satisfied.
 - (iii) Where 2 or more persons are tied and there are not sufficient vacancies available to elect all of the tied persons then a further ballot between the tied persons shall be conducted amongst the members present and entitled to vote.
 - (iv) No votes are to be declared invalid by virtue of a technical error in completion of any voting form if in the sole opinion of the Returning Officer the intention of the voting member is clearly discernable on the voting paper.

11. VACANCIES

11.1 The office of a member of the Board shall become vacated if the person holding that office:

- (a) Dies
- (b) Resigns by notice in writing
- (c) Is removed from office by a resolution of the Board passed by a majority vote by all Board members including the member under consideration. The required majority is the number of voting Board members present less one. The vote must be an Agenda item notified to all Board members prior to the meeting. Reasons for removal can include but are not limited to: serious offence breaking New Zealand law; non-performance on the Board; material contravention of the Board Code of Conduct.
- (d) Ceases to be a financial member.

11.2 Should an elected Board member's position (see by-law 9.1(a)) become vacant pursuant to by-law 11.1 then the Board shall call a by-election to fill the vacancy within 30 days of the effective date of vacancy. Should such a vacancy occur within 30 days of the date of the AGM it is at the Board's discretion whether or not to call any by-election prior to that date.

11.3 Order of Retirement.

At every AGM three (3) elected Board members shall retire from office. The elected Board members to retire pursuant to this clause shall be selected as follows:

- (a) first any elected Board member who wishes to retire and does not offer to stand for re-election
- (b) second those elected Board members who have been longest in office since their last election. For persons who were last elected as Board members on the same day, those to retire shall be determined by lot.

A retiring Board member shall hold office until the dissolution of the meeting at which his or her successor is elected.

A retiring Board member shall be eligible for re-election.

12. APPOINTED BOARD MEMBERS

12.1 Board Appointments

- (a) The Board may appoint up to two members using any procedure they decide on.
- (b) When the Board makes an appointment the Board must inform the members of the procedure used to make that appointment.
- (c) In appointing Board members under these provisions the Board shall use its best endeavours to appoint persons who have specific and relevant skills, qualifications and experience that is likely to add value and benefit to the activities and decisions of the elected board members and the Discipline.

12.2 Terms of Office of Appointed Board Members

- (a) The terms and conditions will be set by the Board.
- (b) The maximum term of office will be two (2) years.
- (c) The Board must inform the members of the term and conditions of the appointments of appointed board members.

12.3 Vacancy

Any vacancy in the appointed members of the Board may be filled by the Board appointing a person to fill the vacancy.

12.4 Vacating Office

The office of an appointed Board member shall be vacated if the person holding that office:

- (a) Dies
- (b) Resigns by notice in writing; or
- (c) Is removed from office by a resolution of the Board passed by a majority of not less than two thirds of the members of the Board excluding the appointed Board member under consideration.

Board means the Board of Endurance NZ

CTR AGM (“AGM”) means a meeting of the members convened annually and notified to the members in advance for the purpose of discussing CTR matters

CTR Committee (“Committee”) means the members elected annually at the CTR AGM to administer CTR.

Member means a person who qualifies in terms of Endurance Bylaw 5

3. ADMINISTRATION

The administrative functions of CTR shall be supervised by the CTR Committee who is responsible to the Endurance NZ Board.

4. CTR AGM

4.1 The AGM shall have the power to exercise the functions and objects as conferred on by these rules.

The AGM will be open to all financial members of EnNZ and shall be held during the month of July in each year in conjunction with the EnNZ AGM for the purpose of:

- (a) Receiving the Chairpersons report for the preceding season
- (b) Receiving reports from Committee members. (Covering that member’s specific area of responsibility) for the preceding season.
- (c) Electing the Committee members.
- (d) Voting on CTR Remits, Rule Changes and Notices.

- (e) Transacting general business

4.2 Notification of AGM

Notification of the EnNZ AGM will also serve as notification of the CTR AGM.

The accidental omission to give notice or the non receipt of notice of an AGM by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings of any AGM unless the members present at an AGM determine otherwise.

4.3 Business of AGM

No business other than that stated shall be transacted unless notice of motion there shall have been given in writing to the Secretary of EnNZ at least twenty-eight (28) days prior to the meeting. The business of the AGM shall include:

- (a) Confirmation of the minutes at the previous AGM.
- (b) Presentation of the Chairman's annual report for the preceding season.
- (c) Presentation of Committee member's reports for the preceding season.
- (d) Election of Committee members.
- (e) Remits from individual members.
- (f) Transaction of any other business of which due notice has been given as provided by these rules.
- (g) General business.

4.4 Adjournment of Annual General Meeting

The Chairperson may with the consent of a majority of those present at any AGM, and shall if so directed by a majority of those present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business, which was to be transacted at the meeting, which was adjourned.

If a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as the original meeting.

4.5 The following provisions apply to all General Meetings:

- (a) The Chairperson will chair the meeting. Should the Chairperson be unavailable then the meeting shall elect one of the members of the Committee to take the Chair.
- (b) No ordinary member shall be entitled to vote unless a financial member of EnNZ.
- (c) Every ordinary member present and entitled to vote has one vote upon every motion exercised in person or by proxy pursuant to the provisions of these rules and where there is an equality of votes the Chairperson has a second or casting vote.
