

How Well Do You Know Your NZ Olympians?

- |   |                          |                  |
|---|--------------------------|------------------|
| 1. I hold the record for most Olympic medals won for NZ   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Ted Morgan       |
| 2. I started out pursuing a career in rugby, discovering my Olympic sport of rowing as a way to train off the field   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Eric Murray      |
| 3. My brother is a famous NBA basketballer  | <input type="checkbox"/> | Danyon Loader    |
| 4. In 1999 I appeared on a postage stamp issued in Senegal, jumping a cross-country fence   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Alice Robson     |
| 5. My hometown of Taupo has named a street after me   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Sally Clark      |
| 6. I currently hold a New Zealand-Oceania record and an Outdoor World Junior record for my sport of pole-vaulting.  | <input type="checkbox"/> | Bevan Docherty   |
| 7. I initially took up boardsailing at 17 as a “fun way to see the world” before I began to pursue it professionally. My Olympic success led me to win New Zealand Sportswoman of the Year four times | <input type="checkbox"/> | Eliza McCartney  |
| 8. At 15 years old, I became the youngest Kiwi athlete to have won a Paralympic medal   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Lydia Ko         |
| 9. My world record-breaking, gold-medal 1500m sprint was witnessed by Adolf Hitler  | <input type="checkbox"/> | Valerie Adams    |
| 10. I am the youngest player ever to have been ranked No. 1 in professional golf  | <input type="checkbox"/> | Andrew Nicholson |
| 11. I am the first New Zealander to have won an Olympic gold medal for cycling  | <input type="checkbox"/> | Barbara Kendall  |
| 12. At Horse of the Year Show 2020, I announced my official retirement from my sport of eventing  | <input type="checkbox"/> | Jack Lovelock    |
| 13. I won New Zealand’s first ever gold medal in 1928 for boxing  | <input type="checkbox"/> | Sarah Ulmer      |
| 14. I am the youngest New Zealander to ever go to the Olympics. I was 16 when I went to the Winter Olympics   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Sophie Pascoe    |
| 15. My career in my Olympic sport began as a groom for Mark Todd, as Todd was beginning to compete more seriously   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Blyth Tait       |
| 16. I fell into my sport of kayaking thanks to my parents forcing me to take up Surf Life Saving as a kid   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Peter Snell      |
| 17. I was born in Australia to New Zealand parents, before moving to Tauranga when I was 12. I began rowing at university   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Lisa Carrington  |
| 18. I passed away at the age of 80 at the end of last year  | <input type="checkbox"/> | Mahé Drysdale    |
| 19. My gold medal for the 200m freestyle in Atlanta was New Zealand’s first ever medal for swimming   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Ian Ferguson     |
| 20. My son also became a kayaker like me, and went to both the 2004 and 2008 Olympics   | <input type="checkbox"/> | Mark Todd        |