

Information for New Members

Useful links for Endurance and Competitive Trail Riding (CTR)

What is Endurance? A short explanation of what an endurance ride is

What is Competitive Trail Riding \(CTR\)? A short explanation of what a CTR ride is

Guide to Competing in your first Endurance/CTR ride Here you can find out what to expect and what you need for your first endurance or CTR ride. Some useful charts also available at this link

Who should I contact for more Information? Contact the Endurance Sport Administrator who can put you in touch with a local club and/or provide information that you may require

Where is the nearest Club I can join? Most clubs hold both endurance and CTR rides. As a member of a club you can compete in events held by any of the other clubs

Where do I find out what events are being held? This link takes you to the event calendar and also information and entry forms for upcoming events

Endurance Rules

CTR Rules

Are there any records I need to keep for myself or my horse? This link take you to additional useful information for riders.

Is there an Endurance and CTR Newsletter? The monthly Newsletter is published here.

How to become a member of Equestrian Sports NZ \(ESNZ\) and receive Member Benefits If you want to enter classes of a higher level than Introductory level you will need to become a member of ESNZ. There are also some great benefits to being a n ESNZ member.

How to register your horse with ESNZ If you join ESNZ as a member it is also a good idea to register your horse as it give more options for classes you can enter

Frequently asked questions about ESNZ membership and registration