

The Julie Brougham Adult Development Camp

National Equestrian Centre, Taupo
19- 21 April 2024

Dressage NZ and the Development Committee are excited to host the camp and are immensely grateful to David Brougham in supporting this opportunity for adult riders.

The camp will host two groups of 10 riders each, 22 years and above.

Group 1, Preliminary to Elementary riders. Group 2 Medium to Grand Prix riders.

The groups will be coached by Andrea Raves, ESNZ Elite Coach and Debbie Barke, ESNZ Performance Coach.

Riders will have lessons and test riding in their program. Riders will have to be agreeable that the participants of the Coach Development Camp, run in conjunction with the Adult Rider Camp, are allowed to watch their lessons and discuss among themselves and with the Coach Educator.

The Coach Development Camp participants will watch the lessons of the riders and discuss “how to teach” with their Coach Educator amongst the group discussions about coaching styles and other topics.

Both Rider and Coach camps will attend a series of joint lectures both within their camps and separately.

Applications close Monday, 1 April 2024, 7:00pm unless maximum numbers are reached before this date

Please note applications are first in first served accompanied by full payment on EvoEvents

If there is an oversubscription of one group, we will endeavour to accommodate depending on overall numbers.

Timetable

Friday 19 April – Arrive by 1:00pm

- Help to set up dressage arenas.
- In the afternoon there will be an arena familiarisation, an opportunity to have some arena time without the pressure of test riding. Riders keen to learn a bit more about working in warm up arenas, this is your chance to ask questions.
- In the evening there will be a potluck dinner and talk.

Saturday 20 April

- Day two will be busy with 40-minute private lessons with either Andrea Raves, ESNZ Elite Coach or Debbie Barke, ESNZ Performance Coach.
- Katie Bird, www.equinesportstherapies.co.nz, will present on horse physio with the opportunity to work with her in some group pole work sessions designed to develop your dressage horse. We really hope you will watch each other, and we encourage discussion amongst the riders and coaches.
- In the evening, we will organise to have some take aways delivered (own cost, please bring CASH), so there will be a range of options available.

Sunday 21 April

- Day three is test riding day. A 30-minute warm up with the coach and then 30 minutes with one of New Zealand's top judges to ride a test and then discuss and re-ride tests or part of tests as you like.
- Laura Hancock from Movement Works, www.movement-works.co.nz, will talk about rider fitness and mobility.
- There will also be an opportunity to re-cap and set goals with your coach.
- Camp will close approximately 4:00pm Sunday.
