

Riders Who Have Represented New Zealand

1. This rider recently announced his retirement from International Eventing. Jock Paget
2. This rider rode in the 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics and started his riding career at Plimmerton Pony Club in Wellington, NZ. Uma O'Neill
3. This rider is currently competing a horse that shares a name with an animated character from a 2015 Pixar Film. Sir Mark Todd
4. This rider won the Big Red Trophy for NZ Young Rider of the Year in 1994. Sharn Wordley
5. Aboard the 17 year old Lenamore, this rider won Burghley in 2010. Clarke Johnstone
6. Not only is this rider flash in the saddle, give her a pair of scissors and she'll make your hair look pretty flash too! Jonelle Price
7. This rider had dual citizenship and competed in the 2000 and 2004 Summer Olympics for Bulgaria. Louise Duncan
8. This rider was born in Hawaii and only started representing NZ in 2019. Andrew Nicholson
9. This rider is the youngest to ever win the Olympic Cup. Joe Meyer
10. This rider currently has a top competitive horse with an onomatopoeic name. Heelan Tompkins
11. This rider won one of only four NZ Medals in the 2000 Olympic Games. Tom Tarver-Priebe
12. This rider has won the Nations Cup and the Nationwide Cup twice. Blyth Tait
13. This rider was number 1 on the 2019 FEI World Eventing Rankings. Daniel Meech
14. As well as taking her 18 year old horse (Nugget) around Athens 2004, this rider was a breakfast show host. Bruce Goodin
15. You dig my last name! Caroline Powell
16. This rider is the 1287th NZ Olympian. Richard Gardner
17. This rider is currently competing an equine who shares their name with a famous cartoon sailor. Briar Burnett-Grant
18. This rider put a hold on her Law Degree to pursue riding, she moved to the UK in 2005. Samantha McIntosh
19. Who is this? Tim Price

